Dr. William Diebold, Jr.

STAT

Dear Dr. Diebold:

I am delighted that you will be able to join us after all. I am enclosing a tentative agenda with a notation of those participants who have already confirmed their attendance. We will keep you informed of new additions to the list, and the Department of State will advise you of administrative arrangements as we move closer to the conference date.

As I mentioned, Paul Marer has agreed to give the presentation on the politics of East-West trade, for which you and Marshall Goldman will serve as discussants (10 minutes each). The session should begin about 10:30 am and end about noon. Conference sessions will fill both Thursday and Friday, April 5th and 6th, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, and I hope you will attend as many sessions as your time and interest dictate.

Sincerely,

Milton Kovner
National Intelligence Officer
for
Western Europe

Dear Mr. Makins:

I am delighted to learn that you will be able to join us for the April 5-6 conference at the State Department, and that you have agreed to address the issue of the UK and Europe. Your remarks should be about 15-20 minutes.

This brief note is merely to confirm that the time of the April 6th session dealing with National Perspectives will be 0900-1230. We hope, of course, that you will attend as many sessions as your time and interest dictate. As mentioned in our previous correspondence, the State Department will handle all the administrative arrangements and will be in touch with you closer to April.

Enclosed you will find a more complete agenda.

Sincerely,

Milton Kovner
National Intelligence Officer
for Western Europe
